KGCCI invites you to

“Startups meet Grownups”

Dear Members,

We are pleased to invite you to “Startups meet Grownups” on June, 13th 2017.

At this event KGCCI member companies have the chance to meet and exchange with highly innovative Korean startups from the IT, Automotive and Health Care area. We will focus on one of the most important challenges of our time: how to foster innovation? Therefore, we want to create cooperation opportunities between Korean startups and KGCCI member companies. Our event partner will be the non-profit organization D.CAMP which is funded by twenty banks in Korea. Established in 2012, it is often referred to as one of the largest foundations in Korea to support startup activities, with an asset base of approximately USD 470M.

When: Tuesday, June 13th, 2017, 09.00am – 01.00pm

Where: D.CAMP, 6th Floor
Saerom Bldg. 551, Seolleong-Ro \(Yeoksam1-dong\) Gangnam-gu, Seoul

Here is what you can expect as an attendee of the event:

- (1) Overview over the Korean startup ecosystem and success stories of German firms already cooperating with Korean startups
- (2) Preselected startups present themselves in pitch sessions
- (3) World Café with industry related tables to provide opportunity for exchange between startups and grownups
- (4) Lunch and Networking

Participation Fee: KRW 45,000 for KGCCI members. Participation for startups is for free.
Please register at www.kgcci.com/events until June 5th, 2017 (online registration only).

We look forward to see you in Gangnam, the Silicon Valley of Korea, in June.

Best regards,

Barbara Zollmann
President & CEO

Please note:

A cancellation until June 5th, 2017 is free of charge; thereafter in case of cancellation or no show full fee per person has to be paid.
