Bergemann Schönherr & Partner

Successful expansion starts with strong legal foundations – and with partners who understand your perspective. At Bergemann Schönherr & Partner, we guide Korean entrepreneurs and corporations through every stage of establishing and growing their business in Germany.

With our deep experience in cross-border advisory and our close connection to the Korean business community, we know the practical and cultural challenges that come with entering a new legal environment.

Our legal team supports you with:

- choosing the right legal form for your business setup,
- drafting and negotiating articles of association and shareholder agreements,
- reviewing and adapting contracts with German partners,
- ensuring compliance with commercial, and corporate law,
- and assisting with regulatory approvals and corporate governance matters.

Attorney Thomas Elster, Honorary Consul of the Republic of Korea in Bavaria, is personally engaged in supporting Korean investors and business owners – bridging cultures and ensuring smooth cooperation. Our mission goes beyond legal advice: we help you understand the “how” and “why” behind German regulations, so that you can make confident decisions and build long-term success in Europe.

And because every legal decision has tax implications, our in-house tax experts work hand in hand with us – ensuring that your structure is not only compliant, but also efficient and sustainable from a fiscal perspective.
